

Are you looking for a new job or career?

National Careers
Service®

The National Careers Service provides free, personalised advice and guidance on learning, training and work.

Our qualified careers advisers can help you with:

Vacancy
bulletins and newsletters

Interview
support

Job search
and applications

Skills analysis
and career
planning

Job matching to live
vacancies

Updating and tailoring your
CV

Understanding
the local job
market

Employer-led workshops,
webinars and
job fairs

Finding and applying for apprenticeships

Access to upskilling
and training
opportunities

Digital
interview skills

Access to online advice
and digital tools

To book an appointment with a careers adviser call 07885881938.
Or visit nationalcareers.service.gov.uk

    Search for CareersWestMids

“

*I have good news that I landed a job...
Thank you for your help over the past few months, your help kept me motivated when I started to lose hope!*

”

Telephone

To speak to an adviser, call 07885881938.

Lines are open from 8:30am- 4:30pm Monday-Friday

Face-to-face

If you would like face-to-face advice and guidance, our careers advisers are based in Jobcentres and community venues across the West Midlands. Call 07885881938 to book an appointment.

Online Support

You can contact an adviser by webchat or email and access our online resources and digital tools by visiting our website:

<https://nationalcareers.service.gov.uk/>

Social Media

Follow us on social media to keep up to date with events, vacancies, and opportunities across the West Midlands.

Search for CareersWestMids

Webinars

We run free webinars on a range of topics including job searching, interview skills, and working in different job sectors.

Book your place online here:

